MORNING DOLPHIN SPOTTING TOUR (Duration: 3 hours +-)

(Immediate effect until 31 December 2016) ~ 3rd edition

(Includes: All guided tour, cruise fee, GST 6% and 1 bottle drinking water)

This cruise criss-crosses the mouth of the Santubong River in search of the rare Irrawaddy Dolphin. The Irrawaddy, or snubfin dolphin, inhabits rivers, estuaries and shallow coastal areas. The Santubong area is one of the best places in Sarawak to view this unusual looking marine mammal. The dolphins are often seen swimming and diving around small fishing boats in the estuary. Occasionally they are seen playing in the open water. Visitors will need a keen eye to spot the dolphins at first, but after a short wait they can often be seen surfacing all around the boat. Cruises along Salak River and have a view the fishing village with houses on stilts.

* Please note that these animals are wild and therefore, there is no guarantee that visitors will see them. ****

EVENING WILDLIFE & NATURE WATCHING CRUISE (Duration: 3 hours +/-)

(Immediate effect until 31 December 2016) ~ 3rd edition

(Includes: All guided tour, cruise fee, GST 6% and 1 bottle drinking water)

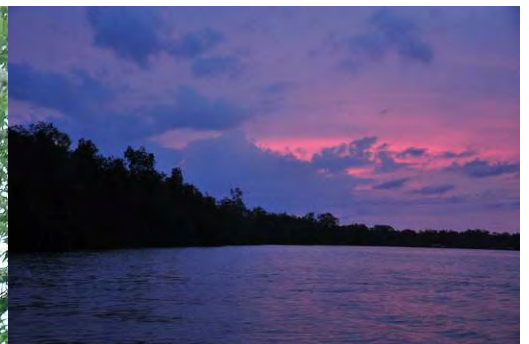

This tour takes you around the rivers of the Santubong Peninsular, offering you the chance of seeing some of Sarawak's fascinating wildlife. The cruise starts at the Santubong Village. From there your boat cruises to the mouth of the Santubong River, where Irrawaddy dolphins are often spotted.

Your boat then roams the mangrove lined rivers looking for wildlife. As the light starts to fade we go in search of the rare proboscis monkey. Small groups are often seen on the treetops at the water's edge, settling down for the night.

As dusk arrives we search for fireflies and crocodiles. Crocodiles are often seen on the mud banks and brightly shining crocodile eyes can be spotted when a torch light is passed over the river. After searching for crocodiles your boat proceeds further up river where fireflies gather at night. Watch the fireflies move around the branches of the mangroves, momentarily lighting up the night sky. After enjoying a firefly light show you return to the jetty.

* Please note that these animals are wild and therefore, there is no guarantee that visitors will see them. ****

SERIKIN SHOPPING TOUR

(Duration: 4 hours+-)

(Immediate effect until 31 December 2016) ~ 3rd edition

(Includes: Return transfer, parking fee, GST 6%)

A Shopper's paradise - SERIKIN, a town located on the Sarawak – Indonesia border, is a favourite destination for shoppers, especially very popular for those from Peninsula Malaysia and among our locals here.

Situated in the Bau district, not far from Tasik Biru, it takes approximately 1 ½ hours to reach this town by road from Kuching city. On both sides of the road leading to Serikin, one can see vast tracts of empty land alternating with swathes of green jungle, as well as the homes of people from the Iban and Bidayuh communities. A small roadside police post indicates the arrival in Serikin.

Stalls in Serikin only operate during the weekends, on every Saturdays & Sundays. Most of the products sold here are from Indonesia. The main attraction is the ability to bargain freely. The goods are neatly arranged within and outside the stalls that stretch up to two kilometers. And one can hunt for different types of merchandise such as the handicrafts, mats, rottan products, clothing, various types of textiles like batik, kain songkek and kebaya fittings with unique embroidery, woodcarving, handmade potteries, weaving, and crystals, memorabilia made from glass and storage containers and other endless items. You can find stalls selling keropok. (Various type of cracker made from local fruit)

MEDAN NIAGA SATOK WEEKEND MARKET (Duration: 2 hours+)

“A fascinating buying experience in a riot of colours”

(Immediate effect until 31 December 2016) ~ 3rd edition

(Include : Return transfer only, GST 6%)

The Medan Niaga Satok, which actually starts on every Saturday afternoon until Sunday noon is held at Kubah Ria. It is renowned for the Bidayuh ladies who spread their jungle produce along the parking spaces. Walk around and view all the colorful and exotic vegetables arranged on the mats or canvas to attract buyers.

The Stalls at the Medan Niaga Satok are divided into various categories. Visitors should not miss Pasar Satok as the busy market offers views of diverse cultures, a cacophony of unfamiliar languages (especially for those familiar with standard Malay and English) and an assortment of products.

In the market, you will find a lot of exotic fruits and vegetables like wild jungle ferns – ‘Midin’, which can only be found in Sarawak. There are also ‘Snake skin’ fruits and wild ‘belimbing’. Occasionally, you might be able to see one of the unique delicacies of the ethnic group, which is high in protein and believed to be a cure for ‘asthma’; the life ‘sago’ worms which is normally fried or eat fresh as snacks during tea break.

There are also Chinese and Malay stalls selling various items such as the famous fresh water salted fish, ‘ikan terubok masin’, ikan bakar, local handicrafts and ethnic carvings, fruits, vegetables, poultry, seafood, unique plants and flowers like wild orchids, wild honey, traditional herbs (used as medicine), pets and even clothing.

Various types of local kuih and snacks are also on sale at the market.

KAYAKING EXPERIENCE (Duration: 5hrs 30mins +-)

(Immediate effect until 31 December 2016) ~ 3rd edition

(Includes: Transport, packed lunch, GST 6% and 1 bottle drinking water)

Depart time: 0900hrs

Arrive hotel: 1430hrs

After about 40 minutes' drive from town you are transported to the mist covered hill sides of Borneo Highlands with undulating terrain dotted by small scale pepper farms. You will alight at Bengoh, a delightful Bidayuh village and staging point for journeys by foot or rivers deep into the interiors. Here you will be given brief paddling instructions and safety briefing before proceeding down some steps to a small tributary where your parked kayaks awaits. A group photo will be taken before we embark on our kayaking adventure. This shaded stream with overhanging trees, steep banks and a bridge overhead has just enough room for your kayaks to get through and meanders a short distance before opening into the vista of Sg. Sarawak Kiri. The wider river allows easier passage and open up vistas with views of the secondary forests and the farmlands of the local villagers. You will see bananas and cocoa trees growing on these pockets of farm land. The gentle flowing river aids the journey and soon everyone will be paddling with confidence and enjoying the scenery as well as the fresh air. Sounds of birds and insects accompanied the kayakers along the entire journey. Sights of unique limestone rock outcrop formations on the right side of the river make a wonderful photo-opportunity for all. A short paddle away after this we will reach Kg Danu where we will alight on a pebbled island under a pedestrian only suspension bridge. Climb up some steps; take a short stroll across the suspension bridge and take in the panoramic views. (Packed lunch will be provided).

Item to brings : Light clothing, towel, swim wear, waterproof camera, insect repellent, sun block, flat shoe(prepare to get wet).

TRADITIONAL IBAN LONGHOUSE SAFARI
 (Immediate effect until 31 December 2016) ~ 3rd edition

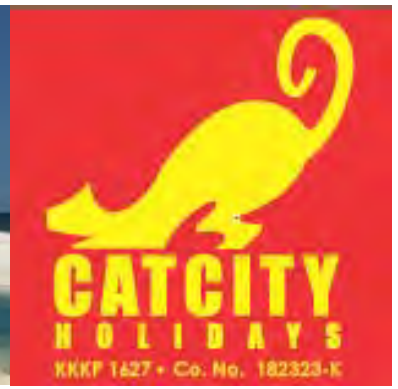

Longhouse is a village of 20-25 “bilek” or rooms (each for one family), all under one roof. Journey to the longhouse begin with a 4 hours car ride passing through the scenic countryside. The vast land on both side of the road are dotted with vegetable farms, paddy fields, rubber, pepper, oil palm and cocoa plantations which are some of the top revenue earner crops of Sarawak. En route a brief stopover at a small town called Serian. You will have a chance to experience the busy daily wet market and witness some of the rare jungle produce being sold by the native. Lunch will be at Lachau, a small popular “cowboy” town for Indonesian natives from the nearby Kalimantan border town who came over to do barter trade. You could do your last minute shopping here for a gift to your Iban host. The journey overland will end at a riverbank where a native longboat will takes you further upstream. Duration of the boat ride varies from 20 minutes to 1 hour; depending on which longhouse and the water level of the river. Poling under trees bending protectively over the river and shooting rapids (during dry season, you might be required to get down and help to drag the boat for a short distance) before arriving at your destination. Upon arrival, you can tour around the longhouse where semi wild boars and hunting dogs run nearby. Mingle with the Longhouse folks and talk about their daily activities and life at the Longhouse. The Iban maidens and warriors will perform a welcome dance while “tuak”- a traditionally brewed rice wine are serve as a welcome drink. Demonstration of their favorite game; cockfighting and “blowpipe” will be held at the open space. This is your chance to try out your skill of using the deadly weapon – “blowpipe”.

Item to bring : Light clothing, towel, raincoat, torch light, swim wear, waterproof camera, insect repellent, sun block, flat shoe(prepare to get wet).
